

Shira Roytman

050-5970100 | sshira951@gmail.com | Kiryat Ono

Member of the main NOC team in the 8200 unit with experience of monitoring and controlling data pipelines, and identifying system deficiencies.

A problem solver with great passions to research, reading and exploring.

Education

2018 – Techno-operational course in the Intelligence and cyber school.

2018 – A project in conjunction with the “Agricultural Research Organization – Volcani Center” in the fields of food engineering, under the supervision of DR. Diana Liberman.

2016-2018 – “Ben-Zvi” high school in Kiryat Ono. 10 units biotechnology and 5 units biology.

Military Experience - Service in 8200 (2018-2021)

Member of a Tech-Intelligence NOC team.

Deep understanding of the systems and stages of intelligence production, locating and solving problems in real time and under stress using different systems and databases.

Cooperation with a variety of Intelligence specialists from different fields, including prioritizing tasks for junior soldiers and reporting live statuses for high-rank commanders.

Fully responsible for the “Modi’in” project, designed to intensify the affinity of the department to the intelligence fields and make the ongoing work more efficient.

Responsible for the new soldiers’ trainings. Taught methodological thinking and usage of technological resources, and monitored their training process very closely.

Technical Skills

- Proficient with organizational and management systems (Jira, Monday, CA).
- Good experience with MySQL and writing queries.
- Deep understanding of complex intelligence systems.
- Specialist knowledge of the communication and signal processing fields and protocols (VoIP, SSL, C7).

Volunteering

2016-2018 – “Sharet” school – Tutored children with social and learning difficulties, to strengthen their social abilities and integrate them in different educational frameworks.

Languages

Hebrew – Native speaker

English – Proficient

Russian - Conversational