

Maya Golan

SOC analyst

Objective

Enthusiastic SOC analyst (beginner). Eager to contribute to the team's success through hard work, attention to details and excellent multitasking skills. Motivated to learn, grow and excel in the cyber security industry. Looking for my first job as a SOC analyst

Skills

Team work
Problem solving
Ability to work under pressure and multitask
Communication and interpersonal skills
Attention to details
Leadership
Mentoring and teaching

Languages

Hebrew- Native
English- Proficient

Education

April 2021-
June 2021

SOC Analyst Course

Cybint Solutions & 8200 Alumni Association

March 2018 -
November
2020

Mae Boyar High school

Majored in Mathematics, English, Art and Chemistry

Work History

December
2020- May 2021

Investigator

Israeli Ministry of Health

- Analyzed confidential information and conducted conclusions both in writing and verbally. Independent work and team work.

March 2018 -
November
2020

Military Service- Intelligence Analyst, 8200

Israeli Defense forces (IDF)

- Released at a rank of Staff Sergeant. Total of 2 years and 8 months. Operational base of the IAF, 8200 Unit of the Intelligence Corps. English. Mainly SIGINT/COMMINT-7143. 24/7/365.
- 2019 Commanders training course, followed by a period of guiding the basic training course that is in my field of work.

Volunteering

2014-2017

Mentoring and teaching kids with Behavioral and academic difficulties

Certificate of Social Excellence (from the MOE) in light of large-scale social volunteering.

2021

Volunteering at a Veterinary Clinic